TO CLARA B. REES WE DEDICATE THIS 1961 EDITION

There are truly the "treasures of the garden" in the possession of a wide range of color, of culture and a refinement of style by the flower. The quality of iris was revolutionized by the introduction of Snow Flurry by Clara B. Rees of Sun Rose. In 1941 Snow Flurry possessed a degree of quality and form here to form a new iris in the iris world.

It is with sincere appreciation for her valuable contribution to the iris world that our society proudly bears her name. As a further tribute we humbly dedicate our first annual Spring Show to Clara B. Rees for her efforts in making the iris truly "treasures of the garden".

The picture at the left was taken about 1939, the year of SNOW FLURRY'S introduction, and Clara stands, proudly, beside this masterpiece and first introduction. The picture at the right was taken 20 years later when the CLARA B. REES IRIS SOCIETY dedicated their first show to this their Patron Saint. IRISTOCRAT, a descendant of Snow Flurry, is at Clara's right in an arrangement.

Actually our dedication should be to both Clara and her sister Ruth, since it was Ruth who carried blooms of Snow Flurry to Carl Salbach for his appraisal and opinion. We are all eternally thankful to Clara for producing this great iris, to Ruth for her faith in it, and to Carl Salbach for its introduction. Perhaps no other variety has been received with more acclaim, and certainly it has been employed by the iris hybridizers of the world more than any other variety. Its "children and grandchildren" are now legion — two of them, Blue Sapphire and Violet Harmony, having won the Dykes Medal. If Clara had produced only Snow Flurry, her contribution would be considered monumental, for the influence this great iris will have on the future of our flower can hardly be realized. For a quiet charm and great love of her fellow beings we are grateful and we wish her, and Ruth, happiness, continued successes in hybridizing, and long life.

(* marked contain Oncocyclus or Regelia blood)

(ALL 1961 INTRODUCTIONS NET)

AROUND ABOUT (Don Nebeker, Salt Lake City) Midseason-Late 38 inches. ((Tiffanja x Blue Rim) x Aldura x Tell's 46-112: (Blue Shimmer x (Electra x Wasatch))) X ((Tiffanja x Blue Rim) x (New Hope) White ground plicata with standards stiched blue-violet; falls bordered blue-violet. The very wide falls are nicely flared and very clean in the center — free of the usual line that mars so many plicatas. Yellow beard lightly tipped blue. Good substance insures long life of the blooms. This should be especially effective crossed with Belle Meade, Rococo, Memphis Lass, Lake Isabella, Miss Alameda and Caroline Jane. H. C. award 1960 No. 6-27 $25.00

CHETKIN (Muhlestein) Midseason-Late 36 inches (Surrender x New Adventure) Light pink-ground plicata delicately marked rosy-cinnamon and carrying a cerese-tangerine beard. The size and shape of this flower are good and show a marked improvement in our goal toward a deep pink plicata #57-84. $20.00

COUNTRY CREAM (Hattie Sparger, Clarkston, Wash.) Early-Midseason 40 inches. (Starshine) X (Snow Flurry x Amandine) Large, flaring cream self with an elusive blue cast over all when first opened. It is the quality its fine heritage would indicate. A healthy and vigorous plant with heavy well branched stalk. Fertile both ways. $25.00

CRINOLINE BELLE (Wilma Vallette, Delco, Idaho) Midseason 36 inches. (Sib. to Salmon Fushsia x Sweet Girl Graduate) Large, wide, delicately colored apricot self with lighter area in falls. This should be marvelous crossed with Frances Kent and her seedlings, June's Sister, Glittering Amber, Valimar, Orange Crush, Orange Parade, Magnet and Nike. $20.00

DISTANT MESA (Warren Kirk, Ridgecrest, Calif., formerly of Utah Valley) Early-Midseason 30 inches (New Snow x Capitola) Round, flaring Mohr-shaped flower of smoothest texture and finish in a bright lavender-orchid or Phlox-pink color. Healthy and vigorous grower. $20.00

DOTTED DARLING (Don Nebeker) Midseason-Late 38 inches. (Aldura x New Adventure) x (New Adventure) A white-ground plicata dotted and marked with violet and sporting a bright tangerine beard. Very good form and clean falls mark this advance in tangerine-bearded plicatas. An excellent mate for my iris Chetkin and further line breeding. #559A. $15.00

FORMAL AFFAIR (Vern Moulding, Ogden, Utah) Midseason 36 inches. (Grand Canyon x Chivalry) This could aptly be described as a vastly improved Grand Canyon for it is much larger, very wide and nicely ruffled. The falls have a light touch of golden-brown extending into the smoky violet coloration and there is a light blue blaze down the middle of the falls which lightens as the flower ages making it increasingly more beautiful. This shown as a seedling at Ogden created quite a lot of favorable comment and the one bloom entered in the show lasted six full days. The heavy stalks are able to hold up the huge blooms. I should like to see this crossed with Dream Dance, Stormy Skies, Bang, Char-Maize, Banner Bright, Jungle Bird, Savage, 'Tis Tops and other bright blends. Could be a happy mate to its half "brother" Dr. Wanlass and to Lavanisque, Amethyst Flame, Mademoiselle and Arlene Wood for more ruffling and possibly lace in blends, violets, blues and to Queen's Lace and Poet's Dream for excellent things. Won an exhibition Certificate at Ogden, 1960. Limited stock. One to a customer. #2-56. $35.00

GLITTERING BRONZE (Muhlestein) Midseason-Late 34 inches. (Sunset Blaze x Utah Sunset) X (51-27: Pretty Quadroon x Bill Brown) Light golden brown self with flaring, round, full falls. Half sister to Doctor K and equally charming. H.C. '59 #58-22 $20.00

GRACIE PFOST (Eva Smith, Lewiston, Idaho — Co-Introduced with Smith's Iris Gardens) EM 38 inches. (Mary Randall x Cordovan) Another great iris to add to the growing list of fine offspring of Mary Randall. Nothing can be taken away from Cordovan, either, and much of the richness and width of this gorgeous Rose blend comes from this fine iris. We saw this in the Smith Garden after the convention last year, also at Plough's garden and it was equally fine at both places. Here is a Jungle Rose coloring but in a flower almost twice as large. This should be a perfect mate for Grand Coulee, Sweet Tomorrow, Big Brown Penny, Magic Halo, Hearthglow, Golden Masterpiece and Henna Rust. $25.00

GRAY LACE (Muhlestein) Early-Midseason 36 inches (Queen's Lace x Limelight) Large, wide well formed grayed-cream with laced edges. Fertile both ways. Should be a spendid parent. #55-9. HC '60. $15.00

HANS C (Cleeta Hansen, Logan, Utah) Early-Mid-season 34 inches. (Heritage x Pink Formal) Very clean salmon-pink self that starts the season and makes a bright clump in the garden. Wonderful growing habits. Bred to border irises like Lacy Lu, Saucy Peach and Yellow Dresden could breed fine smaller things. A good stock.
..... $10.00

IDAHO CREAM

IDAHO CREAM (Eva T. Smith, Lewiston, Idaho) Early-Midseason 38 inches. (Mary Randall x High Tor) Pale cream self with deeper hafts and beard. Ruffled, the falls flare nicely, having an 8 inch spread. Vigorous grower and fast of increase. Lovely foliage. I envision this to be a potentially great breeder for many colors and should be a fine mate for Utah Cream and Cream Crest for these colors. Co-introducing with Smith's Iris Gardens, Box 483, Lewiston, Idaho. $25.00

KALIFA KASHAN (C. G. White) Early-Midseason 36-40 inches (Growth would indicate this to have both Oncocyclus and Regelia bloodlines) Large flowers with domed standards and flaring falls that tuck slightly at tips in onco-fashion. Onco-like beard and wide styles. Standards yellow-ocre; falls same flushed heavily amber-brown to henna with brownish-red signal patch. #19B54. $25.00

LLITA (Mrs. Merlin (Esther) Tams, Wellsville, Utah) Early-Midseason 30 inches. (Cathedral Bells x Party Dress) Charming pink with horizontally flaring falls that are very wide. The petals are fluted and sereated, almost laced. This has a light area in the falls, as its pod parent. Should be a terrific parent. For large as well as small-flowered seedlings. I want to see this crossed with Yellow Dresden and some of my border irises such as Saucy Peach, Lady Kay, Lucy Lu, Jan Elizabeth, Rosedale, Heritage or Hans C. To deepen the color: Pink Enchant-June Meredith, Lynn Hall, Fair Luzon and One Desire. Excellent grower and increaser. The name is a contraction for Estralita. Awarded an Exhibition Certificate 1960. $20.00

MERRY ORCHID (Muhlestein) Midseason-Late 40 inches. (Mary Randall x Pink Fulfillment) Large and lively Bengal-rose or Orchid self with bright tangerine-cerease beard. Both standards and falls are lightly laced. Tall well branched stalks. H. C. '60 #57-163 A $25.00

MY ALANA (Selma Jensen, Logan, Utah) Early-Mid-season 36 inches. (Queen's Lace x Dr. Wanlass) Large, flaring and lightly fluted white with a warm yellow beard. Mrs. Jensen won a Sweepstakes using this iris in an arrangement of chaste and striking beauty. Won an Exhibition Certificate at Logan, 1960 #58-95 $15.00

ROSE HERMOSA (Eugene Sundt, Albuquerque, New Mexico) Early-Midseason 30 inches. (Happy Birthday) x (May Hall x Hall 52-12) Lovely self of French-rose (Medium pink) with pinkish (Geranium-lake) beard. Branching for us has been high with 5 buds only, but in the home garden and climate Rose Hermosa branches. An excellent "Hall" bloodline that should be an elegant parent. Exhibition Certificate 1957 and H. C. 1960 $10.00

ROJO GRANDE* (Sundt) Early 30 inches. (I. Susiana x Pink Formal) Rosy-maroon veined deeper maroon; brown-tipped beard; small blackish signal patch. Fast increaser, easy grower and appears to be perfectly hardy to cold and should resist heat as well. Has retained quite a lot of the Onco-look. Will pod and has pollen. H. C. 1960 $25.00

TOMECO (Melvina Suiter, Caldwell, Idaho) Mid-season 36 inches. (Owyhee: Rich Raiment x Tobacco Road) X ((Captain Wells x Burmese Ruby) x (Technicolor)) A very smooth oxblood red self that is free of haft markings. Very sun resistant and the stalks are nicely branched. A wonderful addition to the red class and one we feel will be a marvelous parent. Fertile both ways. H. C. 1960. $20.00

TOP HELEN (Mary Tharp, Payette, Idaho) Early-Midseason 36 inches. (Helen McGregor) x (Blue Champagne x Sylvia Murray) Very wide, light silvery-blue self including beard and styles. Standards are domed and the round, wide falls flare nicely. Winter hardy, but blooms so early it may be caught in the spring frosts in some areas. Should be especially suited to warm climates. Must be a fine mate for Marriott, Top of the World, Blue Crest, Wonderful Sky, Violet Leather, Harbor Blue, Sparkling Waters, and three newcomers which I saw and liked at friend Tompkins' last spring: Blue Raven, Flag Ship and Silken Sails. Salem, South Pacific, Rejoice, Swan Ballet should also be good mates for Top Helen. H. C. '59 $20.00

TOP OF THE WORLD (Margaret Albright, Salt Lake City) Midseason-Late 36 inches. (Blue Sapphire x Blue Flight) Stunning in its classic beauty with light blue standards and ruffled blue-white falls. The beard is olive-tan, tipped blue. Standards are tightly domed while the falls flare and ruffle just right. Judges have been lavish in their praise of this fine creation. Its breeding being what it is should make Top of the World a wonderful parent. Could be employed for tangerine-bearded blues as well as whites, violets and blue-bearded blues. Crossed with Marriott, Top Helen, Blue Crest, Wedgewood Haven and the Tompkins trio mentioned above should throw some fine blue-bearded things. H. C. '59 $25.00

UTAH SNOW (Muhlestein) Early-Midseason 36 inches. (Swan Ballet x Star Cross'd) A sister to Wonderful White introduced last year. This is an easy grower, fast of increase with lovely flaring form. Introduced for those who want this blood and cannot yet afford her sister. The beard is pale lemon-yellow. Good branching. # 57-144-59 $10.00

UTAH VELVET (Muhlestein) Early-Midseason 34 inches. (Quechee x Privateer) Early reds are scarce. This one starts the season. The round flaring falls are velvety and are devoid of haft markings — making them appear darker than the more silky-appearing Indian-lake red standards. Fast of increase and perfectly hardy in warm and cold climates. #57-3. $20.00

WHITE FIRE (Selma Jensen) Early-Midseason 36 inches. (Palomino x Queen's Lace) For Shape this blue-white self approaches Palmino. yet has more fullness and flare and edges of petals are slightly serrated. The bright red-tangerine beard sets it ablaze. Awarded the cup for Best Seedling of the Logan show 1959 and given an Exhibition Certificate 1960. #58-98 $20.00

BORDER

LACY LU (Muhlestein) Early-Midseason 20 inches. (Golden Flash x Yellow Dresden) Orchid self with cupped standards, reticulated hafts and a bright tangerine beard. Reblooming tendency. H.C. 1960. $10.00

MEDIAN

TANGAROSE (Ed Zickler, Indianapolis, Ind.) Early 12 in. (Twilight Sky x Nana) Rosy red bicolor; the falls have a darker flush at center; beard tangerine. Produces a majority of tangerine-bearded offspring and introduced primarily for breeding purposes to throw medians and possibly dwarfs in colors we are seeking. $10.00

DWARFS

STARLA (Eva Smith) Co-introduced with Smith's Iris Gardens. Midseason-Late in the dwarf-intermediate season. 8-10 inches. (Green Spot x ?) Gorgeous little white with flaring falls that curl at the tips giving the flower the appearance of a three-pointed star (hence the name). The falls carry an intriguing blue-green spot. Blooms into the tall bearded season. Fertile, this should be wonderful for breeding the spot and possibly give blue and turquoise spotted seedlings with the proper mates. Fertile. $5.00

WEE REGIE (Mary Peck, Sioux City, Iowa) Early Midseason 10 inches. (Tiffany x Cretica) Burgundy marked yellow ground plicata and the first of its type to be introduced. Has set seed to its own pollen and is fertile both ways. This opens up new vistas to breed further plicata types in dwarfs and medians and to give hybrid vigor to strains of tall bearded irises. $10.00

WILMA V* (Eva Smith Co-Introduced with Smith's Iris Gardens. Midseason-Late in the Dwarf and intermediate season, blooming into the T.B. season. (Tantalizer x ?) Perfect three by three inch blooms, the standards nicely domed and of a pale wisteria-violet coloring; falls green-gold, semi-flaring and sporting a white beard. The blooms are splashed with violet in the manner of the pod parent. Wilma Vallette was taken with this on our visit to the Smith garden so Eva named this in her honor. Fast of increase and a vigorous grower. $5.00

SPURIAS

FLUTED BUTTERCUP (Muhlestein) Early-Midseason 30 inches. (Bronze Butterfly x Fifth Symphony) Rich lemon-yellow standards; falls buttercup yellow, flaring horizontally and all deeply ruffled and fluted. Color deepens at the throat with green infusion radiating from under the crests. Sturdy stalks that won't grow too tall. A gorgeous cut flower. #59-6. $25.00

LACED BUTTERFLY (Muhlestein) Midseason-late 48 inches. (Blue Acres x Two Opals) A real break since this is, undoubtedly, a forerunner of a new race of plants. From an outcross of the Washington and Nies strains and very vigorous of growth and apparently disease resistant. Pale violet with light yellow signal the standards and falls have a definite but minute lace edging. #59-13. $25.00

MEDIAN IRIS AND INTERMEDIATES

The medians, or so-called Lilliputs derived from the dwarf pumilas, are found to be very fertile (usually both ways) and therefore hold much promise for the unleashing of new genes to the hybridizer. Vigor and much increase are two qualities these might bestow upon their descendants. Most of these bloom at the time of the late dwarfs on into the early tall bearded season.

The Intermediate Bearded irises range in height from 15 to 28 inches. Some of the Intermediates derived from tetraploid tall are border irises that bloom in the regular Tall Bearded season.

SPURIA IRIS

Spurias belong to the beardless species. Their hard, strong, rhizomes are ideal for holding banks. They bloom after the tall bearded season has closed. Their orchid-like flowers are splendid for corsages or for bouquet work and arrangements. Here is an open field for hybridizers who desire to work with this species. Their disease resistance make them the easiest iris to cultivate.

If spurias become affected with disease (or rot, which rarely occurs) Carco X (a coal-tar product quite similar to creosote or stock dip) used according to directions sprayed over the leaves and rhizomes will clear up the trouble, or in stubborn cases it might be wise to lift, wash and dip all rhizomes in the solution. It is good to wash all new (incoming) rhizomes in this solution before they are planted to insure health. (Creolin, Creosote, or Lysol solutions may be used in place of Carco X if it is not available.)

HEMEROCALLIS (Daylilies)

Hems, as they are called, are fast becoming one of the leading perennials in America. Perhaps their great popularity is due to their ease of growth and the fact that hybridizers have made such masterful advances in the last two decades. Daylilies bloom in the late spring and all through the summer and many of the rebloomers continue until frost. The fact that they bloom during the heat of summer (before the annuals have started with their showing) makes them welcome additions to the summer garden. They are lovely planted in the borders interspersed with other plants. The "fountain-like" foliage is always attractive even when they are not in bloom.

If you have not tried some of the newer kinds treat yourself to some and they will capture your heartstrings. If you have a natural "yen" for hybridizing you will enjoy working with these for they are easy to cross, the seeds germinate well, and they transplant easily and grow quickly. The seeds may be held until spring for planting or may be planted in the fall—either way germination is excellent and if transplanted early and given water and care will bloom within a year or two.

There are few diseases that plague daylilies. We think you will find them wonderful garden subjects as well as delightful for cutting and for flower arrangements.

First let us send greetings and best wishes to all our iris fancier-friends. Again during December I was away "playing" with bird shows (Roller Canaries) and Marie is lost with all the names and address of our friends, we do want all to know "what happened!" No Christmas Cards! My trip to Seattle gave me opportunity to talk with Fred Crandall by phone, but not to see him. However, on the way home I arranged to stay one night with Chet Tompkins. Chet and I were invited to spend the evening at the Robert Schreiners. Needless to say it was a most pleasant interlude — Jeanette having prepared a sumptuous dinner — providing as well the company of her gracious mother whom I was most pleased to meet. I am not certain whether friend Tompkins had previously met this lovely lady. The old saying my mother used quite often came forcibly to me at meeting Jeanette's mother: "Like mother, like daughter!" After dinner Bob showed a number of slides recently taken in the Schreiners' Gardens. Some delightful new seedlings were viewed — running the gamut from dwarfs and intermediates to hybrids between Species and T. B. to all the various colors in T. B. lines. It would seem their blends, reds, plicatas and laced things are well to the front among modern productions. Even some Roco seedlings were showing the gorgeous "class" of their illustrious parent. At Chet's home I viewed slides of his newer seedlings. Gorgeous were several new plicatas from Full Circle and Rimfire breeding. While Chet claims to have "given up" intensive breeding for REDS there were several numbered seedlings that show considerable promise. I think we owe this hybridizer a debt of gratitude for giving us several outstanding reds which are now being widely used for hybridizing. Chet's interest, now, seems to be centered in the many blue-bearded lines and among his pinks. Later I shall refer to the spring showing which I was privileged to watch for several days as Marie and I stayed with Chet during the 1960 Portland Convention.

We left home May 15th picking up Wilma Vallette at Delco, Idaho, arriving at Boise, Idaho, in the late evening. We stayed with Wilma's daughter and son-in-law, Verna and "Hal" England. The next morning we looked up Glenn Morris of this city, and were sorry to find he had been taken to the hospital. Mrs. Morris was home, and showed us about the garden. The irises were just starting to bloom. I'm sure Glenn was "fit to be tied", being in the hospital during the blooming season. Luckily, Mrs. Morris is a keen fancier and could make selections of the promising seedlings. We arrived at the Carl and Eva Smith home that evening and found their season just starting. Their Golden Delight, a wide yellow, was in bloom, as were Nesperth Chief and my Idaho — the giant sisters of Holly Smoke, from Jane Phillips x Thotmes III. Looking at these, in retrospect, I think what possibilities might lie crossing these with Formal Affair, a related cross. Their large white Rainier was lovely. But we returned to this garden after the convention since the buds looked so inviting. I have never seen irises growing so lush under field conditions. This soil is dark and very rich and these expert gardeners grow things with real love. When, later, we saw Carl's lapidary arts and the lovely ceramics, a family project, we wondered how this busy couple ever find time for all these activities for they have a family scattered about, grandchildren, and church activities. Sometimes they get to painting ceramics and the old clock has moved its hands to the "wee small hours" because they are "lost" in this absorbing hobby.

May 17th found us at Opal and Tom Brown's. There was quite a lot of bloom here: Kissin' Kin, Blue Sails, Dawn Flight, Full Dress, Bright Cloud and a green and blue blend out of pink breeding and Blue Sapphire cross that I hope they introduce #8-22 B 16. Unlike most greens this was very clean and the ruffling and lace added greatly to its charm. A blue-white #8-7-A7 out of Gosper x Beth Corey was lovely. 9-9B 2 was a pinkish plicata. 8-11 A 9 out of Beth Corey x Queen's Lace I liked, but failed to note its color. 8-17-C8 of blue with heavy and strange foilage is being much used by Opal for breeding. It is out of Poet's Dream x Beth Corey. A really fine, wide, white from Poet's Dream x Eleanor's Pride #9-5A 7 was excellent. Gypsy Lullaby — from "pink" and Melodrama breeding was most unusual and is being introduced this year. Dr. Branch's Baby Dreams, a pale flaring orchid, looked good here. Rimfire was fine as was Tantalum which I could recognize as having both Pink Formal and Party Dress blood — and somewhat similar to Glittering Amber. There were a number of visitors here and Mert Brownell, from New York, was a house guest. We left knowing, of course, we'd return.

At Kennewick, Washington, we visited two gardens. A heavy wind had done considerable damage in Ed. Christensen's main planting, but the house had protected some of the selected seedlings near the home and among these I liked #7C7-3 a self violet, laced, from Violet Harmony x Chantilly. and much wider than any first generation Chantilly seedling I've seen. Another Chantilly seedling, by Mary Randall pollen, was good, #7 D4-1. Ed had a lively tan out of Twenty Grand x Mary Randall #7V-3-1 with a likely pedigree for some excellent future generations. Another without number, but giving the impression of being like Gay adventure in color, width and substance, was violet with this pedigree: Sylvia Murray x Violet Harmony. When I looked at this I hoped Ed had crossed this and #7 C7-3. Just down the street a few houses, G. A. Carlson had some very fine seedlings. A row of whites with tangerine beards from Lipstick x Frost and Flame were uniformly good, but I particularly liked 58-8 Q. A lovely wide blended violet which I thought similar to Mademoiselle, #55-1 A, was out of 57-36 x Twenty Grand. Another ruffled violet #58-1 D from Cascadian x Lipstick, and others which we'd like to have studied, and a few more buds to open, but unfortunately we could not return.

We arrived at Canby, Oregon, the evening of the 17th after sundown. Staying with Chet Tompkins providing an opportunity to study the bloom in this garden with some leisure, the next few days. Chet didn't show us about the garden with a flashlight as he had ten years earlier at Sioux City, when everyone was talking about #50-90 that was later named, Defiance, and I shall never forget the light filtering through its petals and falling upon a backdrop that had been "built" for the "shutterbugs". Early the following morning, Marie and I were out in the garden looking over the several beds of new plantings, and I noted the following: Secret Love, a soft, pale, apricot; Full Voltage, with rich dandelion yellow standards, white falls with an even border of precise stitching in the same color as the standards; Clarion Call was big, but I thought course, yet material for a hybridizer with patience and the urge to go along for several generations. I can, after seeing Opal Brown's Gypsy Lullaby, envision some nice things coming from this and Clarion Call. I particularly liked the fine branching of Lute Song, and my notes said "Peach Pink", yet the cool weather and rain could account for some variation in colors.

I liked both Flag Ship (Violet with violet beard) and Blue Raven and since this later has so much plicata blood it will, undoubtedly, breed plicatas when bred to them. Herald Angel — a fluted white with tangerine beard, and Top Doll had a rich velvety yellow with deep yellow beard, were fine and slated for introduction this year. There were two border irises that I liked, 58-32 a recessive white with excellent branching; 58-15 a black-red of Great Day and Ebony Echo blood. 58-108 a ruffled purple out of Blank Taffeta x Sable Night was promising, yet in the seedlings and crowded. Ky Rohman had as guest a lovely large, wide, blue #57-28 A — this I thought quite similar in coloring and shape to Mary Tharp's Top Helen. Ever Thine, a salmon color from Surrender x Truly Yours holds unlimited breeding possibilities. Rimfire was tall, and well branched and very bright; nothing quite like it in the plicatas. Full Circle gave a fine impression with its rich coloring and strong contrast between the white and dark purple. Ron Beattie's Perique was surprisingly like my own Doctor K. This has an excellent pedigree for breeding rich browns, coppers and blends. Silken Sails from Dancing Deb x Blue Rhythm a pale blue with standards slightly deeper color at once struck me as being an excellent mate for Wide World, Top of the World, and Mrs. Nelson's new French Flair. I liked Chet's Gentle Star of an opaque shade of lemon-yellow with its laced and fluted edges and a wonderful pedigree: (Limelight x Flamingo Bay sib.) X (Chansonette x Limelight). This will, undoubtedly, be widely used for breeding to things like Queen's Lace, Dr. Wanlass, Frilly Fringes, Riviera, Cherito, Sugarplum, Golden Masterpiece, Glittering Amber, Poet's Dream, etc.

Chet drove us over to see the DeForests quickly before we were to leave for convention headquarters. It was good seeing Caroline and Fred after eight years. Fortunately both this garden and Chet's were showing much bloom and we enjoyed the new things planted close to the house. The very large Dawn Crest was in peak bloom and its sister Dawn Star, whose form I like the better, was also very fine. There was a numbered violet with a deep violet beard which I suspect is related to First Violet or Violet Hills, #57-242. A wide, ruffled, yellow-bearded cream was nice, #57-70 B. Later (the last day of the convention) we returned to this garden and at this time my eyes "caught" the most delightful light blue — with beard to match. A flaring flower and standards appeared to be slightly deeper — this turned out to be HIGH ABOVE of this breeding: (Rehobeth) X ((Snow Flurry I Silver Susie) x (Chivalry)) and being introduced this year, Sky Flame, a blue-white with tangerine beard appeared to have good substance and of similar coloring to Mrs. Jensen's Snow Fire. I liked Fashion News a yellow with very wide, ruffled falls that had a white area — my notes say Lura x Francis Kent, etc., so Fred may have talked too fast for my note-taking. One large planting of Violet Hills near the house was breathtaking and proved to be the planting to win Fred the popular President's Cup by one vote since there were several outstanding things competing for this honor.

Marie and I had an exciting few moments as we entered Hotel Benson, Convention headquarters, — seeing many familiar faces and meeting others whom we had only known through correspondence, and as we met the committee in charge of registrations, we were told there was a note for us which read: "Dear Marie and Tell, may I meet you? Twyla Olmstead" But where was she in all that crowd? We had her paged and at last met her face to face. For those of you who my not know, Twyla does the little SQUIGGLES (Cartoons) for my catalog and has done this since 1955. Twyla (Pronounced Twila, the "I" as in "eye." We very much enjoyed getting to know Twyla, and I believe she met quite as many convention-goers as anyone else in attendance. While we luncheoned at one place Twyla quickly "hatched" a Squiggle showing Oregon-irises wearing boots (instead of Rhizomes, I suppose) and having, instead of flowers, umbrellas on their stalks. As we moved along there were other ideas which came to "life" and you will see some of these in the catalog this year. It was a real treat to be in the company and to get to know her better, yet at the close of the convention it was difficult for Marie and me to say goodbye to this special friend who has given so freely of her talents to dress-up and give humor to our "little check list". Truly, Twyla is a woman of quiet charm, spirituality and great talent. If it were her nature to want worldly gain she could easily achieve all this for she has what the art and advertising world needs. Her joy is in service to her fellow beings and her church. It was a source of satisfaction to see how well she had recovered from her many serious hospital experiences, and to see her walking as though she had never known serious bone surgery.

Busses were calling for the first visits. Our section went first to the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. George Shoop, in Portland. A light shower fell as we entered the garden, yet did not dampen the enthusiasm of the crowd at all. Gracious Mrs. Shoop was directing "traffic" and Geo. was patiently answering questions and "bed-hopping" with visitors giving pedigrees, etc. Everyone was drawn to his ONE DESIRE like a magnet. This is from La Parisienne x June Meredith, and since La Parisienne is a grandchild of both Salmon Shell and Pink Formal and the pollen parent of ONE DESSIRE is June Meredith "Grandpa" Tell was very pleased. George had a host of other seedlings that were fine and almost without exception coming through his Salmon Shell, Jeb Stewart and Pink Formal lines and ranged from whites with red beards to Salmons, Apricots and to pink and white amoenas. Geo. is a devoted and thorough hrybridizer whom we will watch with interest as his contributions multiply. #57-11 was a blue with tangerine beard, 57-8 a white with tangerine beard. Many guests were doing well here, but I must confess I spent most of the time with George's seedlings.

The next morning we were to visit the Schreiner and Cooley plantings — both extensive plantings. Unfortunately we were just a few days early since cool weather and rain had persisted. Bernard Schreiner (affectionally known as Gus by most of his friends) had worked very hard with his crews to scatter coarse sawdust over the paths and up ends of the field to assist visitors and to keep them from sinking into the mud. A monumental and almost heart-breaking task since there were only the very earliest things to see. The guest borders were magnificently set in front of long rows of evergreens and each clump was widely spaced, beautifully marked and cared for. The buds made one wish to stay a few days for the glory that would unfold. But there were many fine things blooming and the lovely, early, Rococo was putting on a fine show in several clumps — truly one of the great plicatas of our times and due to set a new standard in ruffling and fluting in this color range. The Schreiners had thoughtfully cut some early stalks from the field and these were brought into a show-room where visitors were getting in out of the rain, visiting and having refreshments which the Schreiners thoughtfully provided. Bob's younger son and Pat's and Bernard's children, helped with carrying hot coffee to visitors who remained in the garden. Bob's wife, Jeanette, and Connie were busy hosting fanciers at the home, and in front of Bob's house (protected and in a warm location) was a group of C. G. White's named irises putting on a fine display. In the show room I thought Sparkling Waters particularly fine. In the borders a blue and white plicata # R 221 B was fine and their black (for 1961 introduction, I believe) LICORICE STICK was excellent with its tall stalk. I liked this because of the dark self-colored beard. A catchy name for an excellent iris. This will be very popular. Growing (purposely for comparrison) next to Licorice Stick was Orville Fay's 1960 introduction BLACK SWAN — there was more contrast with this and its bronzy beard. Another blue plicata out of Rococo R 177D was lovely. Actually the borders were "running over" with lovely plicatas which, only a few years ago, would all have been better than anything known at the time. Two little border irises (Medians) were attracting a lot of attention. R 1240 B was a white about 12 inches tall with a very striking and attractive true blue spot on the falls. Its sister of the same height and proportions was a very light blue-white with deeper blue on falls and flush up the standards. These are being increased for introduction — possibly in 1962. Coming from pumila and T. B. blue breeding (stemming from Helen McGregor) they will be most useful to hybridizers. The turquoise blue of the one may lead to new blue colors in T. B., Median and dwarf irises.

There were dozens of reds in bud yet Agatine was in flower and was a very smooth bi-color with yellow beard. R 202 B was a yellow plicata with the yellow being very clean and pronounced. A dark 474 J from (Black Belle x The Bishop) x (Ethiophe Queen x Storm Warning) looked fine — there was also dozens of selected blacks that could be seen in bud only. R 624 A a blue-white Rehobeth seedling was excellent.

My notes made at Cooley's were lost and I have only my memory to serve me. Everyone was taken with the beauty of the formal planting containing hundreds of shrubs, trees and evergreens of wide selection and beauty. There were peonies, azaleas, dogwoods, flowering trees and shrubs of many kinds as well as clumps and mass plantings of standard Tall bearded irises — mostly of Cooley introduction. In the large and spacious packing house, Mrs. Cooley had made some striking arrangements using irises and other materials. Not only were these beautifully done we were treated to many of the newer things — some of which are to be introduced this year. I think everyone was taken with the arrangement using David Hall's 1960 introduction Dot And Dash — his "black-and-white" plicata. And while speaking of this iris, I wondered if it came from a cross I mentioned Mr. Hall had made between Masked Ball and Black Hills and had carried several generations. When I sked Mr. Hall about this at the Hotel he said that such a cross had not been made, so I had been in error to give this information which was not correct. Forgive Me! We did not continue our conversation long enough for me to ascertain the pedigree of Dot And Dash, but I rather surmise that Masked Ball had been employed together with his own plicata of earlier vintage, TIP TOP. We moved to the fields and border plantings of the Cooley's where countless buds awaited us, yet many new things were blooming and numerous Hall seedlings, so there was more than enough to keep us busy and the busses sounded signal for departure all too soon. We noted several lovely violets with tangerine and red beards from Hall's pink breeding lines and his selected pink seedlings were all of uniformly high quality — all showing good width, substance and fine closed standards. Nothing in bloom was as deep as Lynn Hall, however, buds indicated some may be.

That evening (Friday) among other activities at Hotel Benson, Convention Headquarters, a panel on hybridizing was held with Dr. Randolph, Orville Fay, Mrs. Jean Stevens of New Zealand, Robert Schreiner (acting as moderator) and myself I mention this only because I was rather surprised to find that some of those who attended felt that I had a personal feud with Mrs. Stevens. I am quite sure that most of the fanciers realized (although we had several serious moments and differences of opinion) that many of my comments were tongue-in-check, even to the remark wherein I stated that Mr. Fay had developed "his strain" to such a point that he produced only good seedlings; this after one of his neighbors explained that he could make the same crosses Mr. Fay makes and his always turned out differently (poor). I have only the highest respect for each member of the panel and did not, of course, intend to hurt anyone. If they felt otherwise they did not say anything and if I caused anyone concern, I apologize. I am sure every hybridizer has his own ideas and goals. Only the purely scientific person will understand many of the aspects of heredity that we pollen-dobbers have little if any knowledge of, yet this does not preclude success or lack of same. Often the neophyte does something which the expert would frown upon and might even say is "impossible" — the classic example of this is lovely SNOW FLURRY. I'm sure when Clara Rees made the cross it didn't enter her mind that she was crossing a diploid and a tetraploid and the cross might not take. And what marvelous new vistas are opening to hybridizers because some had foresight and made crosses of Tall Bearded irises with various dwarfs, and particularly the pumilas. We'd not have, today, Paul Cook's wonderful new strain of Progenitor derivatives, his Fairy Flax, Baria and all those first "lilliput" hybrids from Geddes Douglas. But getting back to the Hybridizers' panel. I felt honored to participate with this fine group — all of whom have contributed greatly to the advancement of modern irises.

Sat. May 21st was the last day of the convention. The weatherman turned on the deep-freeze and air-tunnel equipment and those who thought we were holding the meeting in the tropics turned "blue" after only a few minutes in the gardens. The sun came out and warmed things slightly before luncheon, fortunately, and our visit to Ron Beattie planting was quite pleasant. Ron had quite a number of border irises out of Skallawag x a sister to Peripue — yellows with brown lines covering the falls, perky little flowers, #57-36 was one of these. Another border 59-35 was a smoothly finished rich rosy violet self. Bob Jensen had a guest here with good contrast #59-52 from Wide World x Surprise Party. Standards violet-blue, falls pale violet-blue. I believe 56-34 was Ron's and came from Snow Flurry x Fantasy) x Happy Birthday) X(Bonny x Hall's 51-36 B). Bennett Jones' Pearl Bouquet had buff-apricot standards with white falls carrying a wide tangerine beard. Jake Scharff had two bright ones here 54-14-31 a brown with texture veining and 55-18-3 a red blend with violet flush. Mrs. Sexton (whom we have known for some years and were happy to see at the meeting) had Earth Angel here — her 1960 introduced white. Pink And Sweet was a pinkish Frances Kent type. Jubilation a yellow plicata with white area in the falls looked well.

That evening, the Banquet, and a fine program. Remembering: the enthusiasm of each speaker, and Ruth Rees' dynamic and charming personality coming through a rather business-like talk on public relations. If I were a public speaker I'd ask for some lessons — the "business" of removing her glasses and talking "straight from the shoulder" at just the right moments was most effective. Remembering more: Fred DeForest's confusion at being away from his table when the President's cup was announced and his returning to personally receive this and the warm applause of his friends and admirers. Little did we realize Fred would be taken from us during the early summer. Dr. Randolph (our beloved Iris Society President) being given a high honorary office by the Rose Society at Portland. A serious and solemn ceremony and not one irisarian tried to stop the proceedings! I have a feeling all we iris lovers are also rosearians at heart. Pity the rose society, however, if their membership "takes to hybridizing" as our Iris members have. Then memories of the 1959 awards, and finally the guest speaker Frieda Bishoff-Mostert from the Transvaal, Union of South Africa. Frieda's unusual native-made straw hat had been one of the fascinating "trademarks" seen at this convention, as were antics of the multi-personalities lady Helen McCaughey, and we had laughed so hard with and at her during the luncheon at Walter Marx's (is anyone else still dreaming of that Alderwood barbecued salmon? Ambrosial!) when Helen used the tanned bit of African animal hide, with natural hair (the Boshoff-Mosterts gave me) inserted under her hat creating a new hair style yes, we watched several outsiders (not iris people) watch and wonder if "she were for real". Perhaps here is the classic example of the split personality, for she can be lady or clown, as her fancy calls. One may not recognize Helen in some of her disguises after having seen her the first evening as one of the charming hostesses.

After the banquet we thanked Jim Kendall for "saving my life" with the loan of his raincoat while at the Schreiner gardens, saying goodbyes to so many — the Earl Browders of St. Albans, West Virginia, Chet Tompkins — thanking him for his warm hospitality, the Schreiners, Steve Moldovan, the Luihns, Gaulters, Myrle Nahaas, the Fishers, Dr. Durrance, the Bensons, Rogers and Nortons from Texas and so many new-made friends. It was difficult to realize the convention was over and we must sleep a bit to prepare for the early morning start with the Boshoff-Masters (Leon and Frieda) so they might see some of the country we had already previewed on our way up. We had met and enjoyed the company of Mrs. Evelyn R. Miller of Masterton, New Zealand and George Mace, of Brackenfell, Cape Province, South Africa. We had invited George to return with us, but our mode of transportation by motor car was too slow for him and he flew to Walla Walla, Wash., where we met in the Brown Garden again, and at Roy, Utah, then he was off for the Central States, South and the East before arriving in England to enjoy their iris season. I am quite sure George saw more than he could properly digest — both of irises and people.

The next morning we loaded the car to capacity with "African luggage" and two charming people. There was no constancy about Leon and we (I say we, but I am sure Marie does not understand personalities of this nature) couldn't predict his reaction to anything. The trip was in no way static — surprise after shock, and vice versa, made the time pass quickly — it was most pleasant company. Wilma Vallette, too, a delightful conversationalist and well-read individual covered the arts, sciences and irises adding to our delight, entertainment and education. Oh, yes, and the rain had stopped the day following the close of the convention!

May 22nd found us entering the Easy Breeze gardens of Jack Linse in Yakima. A light frost had hit the garden and Swan Ballet (like a spoiled child) water-marked and disgraced her "father." All the Linse irises were perfectly at home and giving of their very best. There were established clumps of Trophy, Melody Waters, Voi, Blue Motife, Rose Cap and others of the cross of New Snow x Capitola. Along a border by a small ditch grew some of these and several of Dr. Loomis' Mohr family. Mr. Linse has a liking for these Oncocyclus derivatives and there were 8 or 10 of the newer, Fertile, C. G. White hybrids blooming well. I have always liked and admired Bold Contrast and this made a fine showing. Soft Shoulders was lovely, as were Bethel, Smart Touch, Front Row (with its redish signal), Golden Joppa looking stately — (an improved Lady Mohr-type). An Ormohr seedling I have always liked too, Fairy Dance, was fine growing in old clumps near a ditch and building. High Heels (Cascadian x Windsor) was fine and I could not help thinking what a fine parent this is going to be for both blues and whites. Mrs. Linse prepared some hot coffee for the guests, and as we were leaving Mrs. John Hope of Yakima, Wash. came up to us with the most glorious Orchid-violet iris any of us had ever seen. I thought this was Mrs. Linse with one of Jack's new Onco hybrids for it appeared to be an Onco derivative — being so very wide the falls almost touched at the hafts — it flared, ruffled and fluted and the standards and falls had a lightly laced edging — not a coarse lacing — just right. The substance was magnificent. Mrs. Hope expressed a desire to have this introduced and I was thrilled to have this opportunity — thrilled, too that providence brought us to this garden at a time when Mrs. Hope should have had this iris with her. So we drove to the Hope address and saw the little backyard planting with its small plot devoted to seedlings. There were only 4 rhizomes on this fabulous iris, but she promised to send the entire clump in July after the seed pods ripened. We carried this fower with us for two days and I even put my foot on it a couple of times. Luella Noyd photographed it the next morning. Everyone declared it to be "out of this world". I hope it has grown enough that we can release a few next season. It came from this breeding, for those who are interested in studying family trees: (Arlene Wood x Lavanisque) x Violet Harmony. So you see there are lace factors from Arlene Wood (having Chantilly and Gold Ruffles in its pedigree) and Matula in Lavanisque, and perhaps much of its width came from bloodlines found in Violet Harmony (Snow Flurry blood) and from Gold Ruffles and some of the lines in Lavanisque — it is a fascinating pedigree — not very closely in-bred, but some line breeding, since Matula is a sister to Gold Ruffles' parent, Midwest Gem, and Purissima is in Gold Ruffles as well as Violet Harmony. This has not as yet been named, but it will make its breeder, Lone Hope, famous. And we were shown the magnificent collection of African Violets in Lone's home. Mr. Hope showed considerable interest in his wife's hobbies, being the official photographer of the family promised to photograph this great new iris and any other seedlings of interest. Later Mrs. Hope carried another of-her seedlings over to Gordon Plough in Wenatchee and this was of such quality he purchased the stock and is introducing it this year — her first introduction RIPPLED SUNSHINE — a superb pedigree, too: (Truly Yours x Limelight) X (Riviera) Gordon being the "grandfather" of this (and I being the great-grandfather, makes me feel old; I'm sure he is very proud.

We arrived at Walter and Luella Noyd's home in the evening (May 22nd), looked over the garden of guests and named things, all doing very well indeed. Apricot Dancer, Apricot Dream, Wenatchee Kid, Angela Mia, Atomic Power, Chippitica of her older introductions were all lovely. Striped Butterfly had been in such demand there was only a small stock of this, but it stood out as being very distinct since there is nothing quite like it. Luella had several promising seedlings from Striped Butterfly besides Chartreuse Butterfly being introduced in 1960 — a sister to this iris N92 was a most interesting GREEN NEGLECTAI Luella had named a coppery red Elizabeth DeWitz for her late mother — an iris of fascinating bloodlines: ((Midwest Gem x Mary Randall) x (Inca Chief) X (Inca Chief x Pink Formal). A very smooth flower — at once I wanted to suggest to Luella that she try this with Grand Coulee — undoubtedly she or Gordon Plough already have done this. Paola (named before the "paola scandal" on television bribery "broke") is another fascinating brownish-tan with crimped edges and an orchid flush on falls with a great pedigree: (Midwest Gem x New Horizon) x Mary Randall. Clifford Benson's huge plicata, Mary Pickford, was thriving putting on a fine show as were three of Mrs. Jeanette Nelson's: Beason Flash, Magnet and Soaring Kite. We saw and liked Tompkins red 56-106, "Mel." (Actually her name is Melvina) Suiter's Lady Slippers, Rex Brown's Orchid Princess — a fine ruffled orchid, and one from Missouri. Dr Sturgess' 53-10A — a gorgeous mauve-violet with lace which Soo Preme gardens of Nebraska will introduce this year as MISS LACE (Snw Flurry x Chantilly). The evening turned cool and we were glad to go into the house where the ladies were all busy helping Luella prepare a snack supper since Luella is teaching in the public schools in Wenatchee and hadn't time (with the iris season in full swing, etc.) to "bake a cake," roast a turkey or some of that beautiful Columbia River Valley beef resting in the deep freeze. But the supper was delightful as was the conversation. Later in the evening Luella showed some slides of irises and sundary things. An electric organ in the living room made all of us inquisitive and soon Walter was giving us a short recital. The next morning Walter enthusiastically showed us his real hobby (he has many) that of collecting antiques and the basement was full to overflowing with some rare and beautiful pieces — some of which were put to modern uses in this lovely home. Luella and Walter had room for the 5 of us and we retired after midnight, like children, reluctant to go to bed. But Luella had school the next day and about five a.m. we heard the dishes rattling in preparation to feed her hungry guests. Sweaters on, we went into the garden again to enjoy the early morning beauty and to "gather dew." There is something Ethereal, heavenly, about irises with the early morning sunlight filtering through their rainbow of colors, and the perfumes that change from clump to clump. I suppose if one were interested in perfumes, or odors, among irises that there are probably as many kinds as there are varieties.

After breakfast Luella and Wilma photographed lone Hope's seedling. Luella, Walter and their talented son, Daryl gave us directions to Gordon Plough's Eden Road Iris Garden. It was just after 9 A.M. when we arrived. Gordon was there to greet us. I had accepted his two Awards of Merit at the convention and was happy to "formally" present these for Butterscotch Kiss and Caribou Trail. There was actually too much to see in the two hours we had allotted ourselves here, but Gordon quickly and efficiently escorted us over much of the garden, pointing out some rare seedlings, guests or named things. We liked a host of new seedlings, some of which Gordon is introducing this year: Bwana, Cherry Pink, Country Club, Easter Valley, French Flair, Glamorous, Latin Quarter, Leather Lace, Lorna Lynn and Olson's two Frances Kent seedlings: My Jewel (which received an HC award) and Precious Promise. Spanish Affair, Tomeco and Tres Bien were all lovely. I was taken with Mohr Magic's fine form and dark beard. Cliff Benson (whom we had enjoyed at the convention, and Secretary of our A.I.S.) had several things looking well here — his violet Jean Sibelious was very good. Brown's Queen's Choice, Reinhardt's Ruffled Heiress and Skirts of Pink, Rees' Astronaut, June Magic (my notes say, sent by Allen of Tenn.) and Mrs. Nelson's Atmosphere was putting on a fine blue-show as was Sunday's Child from the same breeder, also her lovely Soaring Kite.

Noted also was a big violet from Mrs. Lowry: Beau Violet. I liked Lost River and a sister 56-15-7, also a laced Ivory — 56-56-23, another laced yellow and white combination — a Riviera seedling. A golden brown blend with lace from Butterscotch Kiss x Mary Randall. A creamy yellow with tangerine beard #55-70-9 (Gay Paree x Plomino X (Frances Kent x Palomino) which I see is Tres Bien. Flaring Ivory was fine, Flyaway, Gracie Pfast from Eva Smith. Two more laced things 57-58 — a lilac blue with pink blood and 57-47-19 from a Sib to Butterscotch Kiss x Yesterday x (Ruffled Gem x Sib to B. Kiss) a ruffled tan that was very wide. A very deep orchid from (Black Forest x Pink Sensation) X Mary Randall with a rich orange-tang. beard was fascinating, #54-54-8. The sisters to Easter Valley were good. Edenite, Cloud Dancer and Rainbow Gold were all lovely. Lilac Festival was a soft wisteria self which I thought at once should be great crossed with Mademoiselle, Amethyst Flame, Dr. Wanlass, Graceline — even the older Lilac Lane. As mentioned — there was just too much to see here in this beautifully situated garden. Jeanette Nelson, The Staumbach's and the Lyons (Mildred and David) were in the garden before we were to leave, as was our "neighbor" and friend from Utah, Bion Tolmon, whom we had seen in Yakima as we were leaving.

Since we had to get to Walla Walla that evening reluctantly we were on our way. The weather, now, was warm and perfect. As we approached Walla Walla we turned off to see the planting of Austin Morgan's growing at the College Place sanitary sewage plant. Here irises grew with abandon — showing that most varieties will accept more of this type of food (or growing medium) than we had once thought. Some of the 2 and 3 years old clumps must have had 100 or more rhizomes and almost as many stalks. It was quite a sight. Austin had hundreds of new varieties on display and another Garden within the city we could not stop to see, but he told it had mostly older, standard kinds, yet they were certainly beautiful as we drove by. At Walla Walla, Tom and Opal Brown and Fran Smith were busy escorting dozens of Convention visitors through the Browns' gardens. I shall never forget the sight the selected seedlings were making in formal beds where lawn bordered these raised beds, and magnificent row of Melodrama — each plant having 8 to 10 increase. As this grew it was a little wonder the Browns had developed such a stock of this fine iris. As it flowered here it was an easy choice for the Dykes Medal award. Freida and Leon enjoyed the gorgeous seedlings here and since I have mentioned these before I shall not reiterate. Again we said goodbye with regret and found a motel in town where Tom and Opal Brown had, undoubtedly, furnished plants for the Motel grounds. To my surprise Apricot Glory was blooming just outside the cottage assigned to Freida and Leon. There were other modern irises blooming here in this iris city where both the soil and climate seem ideal.

Since we had planned to reach Clarkston and its neighboring city, Lewiston, Idaho and to have a chance to study things at the Smith's we got quite an early start. How happy we were that we stopped at Hattie Sparger's at Clarkston. Hattie we have known for some years and one year when the Mad Hatter was still somewhat new I included this as an extra with her order. Reluctantly she told me that evidently everyone thought the iris appropriate for her since she had received 3 or 4 of these that season — she, thereafter signed her letters: "The Mad Hattie." Growing in Hattie's garden were a host of lovely new and older irises and the overflow we understand goes to friends and a daughter who lives not too far distant. The prize in this garden was Hattie's own COUNTRY CREAM which I am pleased to introduce this year. Lois Byers of Oak Lawn, Ill was a house guest here and we were happy to chat a bit for the Convention had afforded us little or no opportunity to visit. On to Eva and Carl Smith's where we spent most of the time among the seedlings and such exciting things were growing in a large field — literally hundreds of selections with from 4' to 40 rhizomes of a selection. You can well imagine we did not cover the acre or more of selected seedlings, but Eva and Carl tried to point out some of these they liked best. They had employed Taholah in their plicata program a lot and crossed with Bazaar, Cinnamon Toast and Dancing Waters they had a host of gorgeous plicatas — some of the red plicatas from these crosses and one 760 from Bazaar x Cinnamon Toast were certainly fine. Then a great many of their crosses were unorthodox — being very wide and some fascinating things were resulting. 583 (Evelyn Bye x Inca Chief) (all Kleinsorge bloodlines) was excellent, clean, wide tan. There were some good blues and whites from Cliffs of Dover x Lady Ilse. I "Starred" 59-396. (Apricot Glory x (Mary Randall x Thotmes III) and failed to write down the color. 58-97 (Sweet Refrain x Song of Songs a yellow ruffled self was good. A lovely apricot from Happy Birthday x June Bride #58-53 we all liked. Their 1960 introduction Lucky Day was a fine yellow and white combination. Here again we liked Gracie Pfost. 57-385 we noted as a Mazatla-color with lace — I didn't get its pedigree. 56-659 was a Dawn Star stype I liked and 59-355 from Frances Kent x Pink Chimes was a fine Orange, this may be a sister to 56-659. Then there was a gorgeous Violet with a violet beard which was mixed with a sister or was a sport that is certainly the finest violet with self beard we have ever seen. There was a large, smooth cream we liked and this was later named Idaho Cream and I am glad to co-introduce this excellent iris. When I saw this I could envision the fine creams to come from this crossed with Cream Crest, Riviera, Queen's Lace, Christmas Primrose to name a few, and other colors if one wishes to go out to Snow Flurry, pink lines, etc. There were several shorter rows of dwarfs. Wilma Vallette was taken with a seedling evidently from Tantalizer so Eva named it Wilma V. This and a Green Spot seedling with a most interesting greenish turquoise spot on the falls named Starla I am also co-introducing together with the already mentioned tall bearded Gracie Pfost and their gorgeous Idaho Cream. The Smiths invited us to have dinner with them at a special spot where Broasted Chicken was the specialty. For lovers of friend or broiled chicken this was perfection.

The car loaded with some of the Smith's handiwork we headed for Caldwell, Idaho where we had promised to spend the night with Melvina and Glenn Suiter, but a late start, and stretches of highway under construction, with some detours, found us ringing their door-bell at 1 A.M. We felt like "dogs" arriving at this hour of the morning, but knowing Mel and Glenn as I do, they'd never have forgiven us if we hadn't done just this. They had long since given up hope of our arrival and had gone to bed, but were up and had us settled in short order and the next morning we had thick broiled steaks (raised, butchered and cured by Glenn himself) for breakfast. Marie and I continue to talk about the marvelous flavor of that beef — the fat having such a sweet nut-like flavor. After breakfast we went into the garden. Late spring frosts (the 2nd and 3rd year in a row) had nipped early buds and many things were not blooming at all. Luckily the house protected plantings around the eaves of the home and in formal borders near the house some lovely things were flaunting their colors. Amber Blush was nice from Apricot Glory x Top Flight. Lipstick, Mazatlan, Tomeco (her fine red which Plough and I are co-introducing this year), Top Helen, Orange Crush all looked fine in protected areas. Mel has some lovely little border irises and it is hoped she will do something with these. She has been hybridizing a long time and is very selective and careful in her ditions. Again it was difficult to say goodbye to these warm and friendly people. We often ponder the glorious things that are ours because of such friends — made, of course, through our work. We have admired the vigor, fine branching and good coloring of Sky Hostess for several years and this was another that was performing nicely in the home garden under adverse weather con-mutual interest in this flower.

An early start on May 27th found us arriving at the Hamblen gardens in Roy in the afternoon in time to meet, again, a host of Convention visitors, Jake Scharff and George Mace from South Africa who were together, and others too numerous to mention. My regret was that I had not been home and in my own gardens when other visitors came by after the meeting, but we are not sorry for the time spent (as my Diary has shown) in the Washington, Idaho and Utah gardens enroute. Finding Mrs. Hope and her superb seedling was, alone, worth the trip. Almost without exception we loved the iris people and feel a strong bond of friendship with them. These are some of the better things of this life, after all. We left the Boshoff-Mosterts at Hotel Temple Square in Salt Lake City for a day's stay there and came on home. We, of course, had dropped Wilma Vallette off at Delco. Her irises were just starting nicely. Waiting, are we, for her new book to come out this year.

It was dark when we arrived home, but I was up early to run to the field to find things in full bloom. I had, of course, missed a few things — many of the intermediates and some seedlings that had frost damage and thus had only one or two flowers. The day kept me busy selecting among the seedlings and making a few crosses. In the night a terrific wind came off Utah Lake and riddled the field. Frieda and Leon came down from Salt Lake this evening and although we went to the field there was little the wind had not literally whipped to shreds — so it was most disappointing to us and to them for the day before there had been a wealth of fine blooms on hundreds of varieties, and of course the rows of seedlings some of which I thought were very fine. One cross that turned out very well was Frilly Fringes x Queen's Lace. There were several fine Pretty Carol seedlings, First Curtain seedlings were of uniformly good quality. Mohr Lace x Dr. Wanlass had produced several lovely laced violets. Charles Salzer had some nice blues from Swan Ballet x South Pacific and good Rehobeth seedlings both from Swan Ballet and Queen's Lace. I liked my #33 from Bang x Jungle Bird — a very wide, ruffled and rich dark blend which to my eyes (and I may be prejudice) appeared quality all the way through.

The following day, the 30th (Memorial Day) the garden had not recovered so we did not attempt to carry anything to the Utah Iris Society show although we stopped by to see the seedlings and other exhibits. We were greatly surprised to find that one of the judges for this show had walked off with Queen of the Show. Ethics should guide judges in matters of this kind and I am happy to see the A.I.S. now has a ruling preventing judges with exhibits from competition. This is as it should be. Human nature being what it is we want to avoid even the appearance of evil. There are some judges whom I would trust to judge their own along with the others and yet have an assurance that the best specimens would be placed according to their merit. We found the seedlings of great quality. P. M. Budge showed the most startling seedlings from very wide crosses. How do you like this for a cross: Bang x Limelight? Several sisters from this cross were outstanding — one looking for all the world like Char-Maize in shape, but more true yellow. I am sorry my notes, made at the show, are not at hand, but there were many that will one day be named, I'm sure. Bion Tolman had a fine red, some lovely blends and some little plicatas (probably border irises) out of Lovelace that were very charming. I noted some good seedlings from a new hybridizer, F. B. Squires, and there were others.

Since the Region 12 meeting was being held in the Roy-Ogden area and the Rainbow Iris Society (at Ogden) was holding its show this same day we hurried on so as to see some of the gardens in Ogden and Roy. Melba Hamblen's planting was glorious and at peak bloom. There were wonderful new named things and the big attention was on her seedlings — almost all stemming from the line she started with Helen McGregor x Radiation and Helen McGregor x Hit Parade which she later crossed with Palomino and my lines of pinks. Her pink Fair Luzon was looking lovely again and has such tremendous substance, which, by the way "she" passes on to her children for I had some gorgeous things from Jan Elizabeth x Fair Luzon and it was difficult to discard any of these, and almost without exception they had the fine substance of this parent. Melba is getting tremendous width in the lines mentioned above coupled with the blood of June's sister (a very wide flower itself) for she has been selective and careful in her hybridizing and has closed the standards well on most of the lines stemming from these irises through Glittering Amber and its sister that was such a fine parent. There was a charming little border iris — a blend of rich colors and a bright red beard which we suggested might be called LITTLE PEKE since like a Pekinese puppy it was so ugly it was cute. Melba did not agree that it was "ugly" — actually it was not ugly but the coloring was most unusual — dull, but dusted with gold and that bright beard did light it up. Catching all eyes, of course, was tall, large and very wide ORANGE PARADE. This is going to be very popular. A wonderful grower, too, and very rugged in all kinds of weather.

Now, this should be enough "Hot Air" for as one cataloguer aptly put it last year — an awful lot of this is wasted in iris catalogs. It is of no use save for heating homes in winter, and I am afraid the kind of I have furnished here will be useless for that! I do, however, want to introduce you to some of the people whom you may not know and for whom I am introducing this year. I have already mentioned Eva and Carl Smith, Melvina Suiter and "Mad Hattie" Sparger. Don Nebeker has been playing around with irises for quite a long time and has several generations of lines among his own seedlings. This is the first year he has wanted to introduce anything and we feel both Around About and Dotted Darling are excellent irises and good breeding advances in their respective plicata classes. Naturally I am pleased with both since I had some small part in their creation — having produced 46-112 in the breeding of Around About and New Adventure is both parent and grandparent of Dotted Darling which is certainly a fine plicata with a bright tangerine beard; the falls flare and the standards close (two faults the progenitor of this has.) Don's beautiful wife, Kay tolerates and helps with the irises and she loves the iris people and we are happy to be in the same social club with them — grand folks. Don Jr. is 13 or 14 (about the age of my eldest son, Grant) and, he, too, is following in his father's footsteps and has his own seedlings coming. Already he has expounded to me his theory on the production of a superior new line. Would that one of my sons was as interested — my own are bent on being in the Olympics about 1967! They have other interests, too, but none of these, at the present time, is toward gardening — and I was just certain when they were small both were destined to become hybridizers of irises for Grant has the appearance of his father as a youth and Martel at 2 years of age was helpful trying to load the discarded seedlings into the wheelbarrow — now it is "like pulling teeth," (as my mother used to say) to get them into the garden at all! There is always a game to play in (Basketball, football, baseball, etc.) — I am still "living in hopes."

Although Warren Kirk is a bit younger than myself (I stayed out of school 3 years to work in the mines at Somerset, Colorado, during the depression — '33 to fall of '35) we attended the Brigham Young University together and were associated in Drama and Theta Alpha Phi fraternity and later as members of a local Players' Guild. I gave Warren and his wife, Winona, a rhizome of Snow Flurry as a wedding gift (knowing they both liked flowers.) and this produced several good whites for Warren, but others had good seedlings from Snow Flurry and it was felt none of these quite different enough. Warren is concentrating on Pinks, primarily, and has some good things coming in these. The cross of New Snow x Capitola was fruitful for Warren as it was for Mr. Linse and we are pleased to offer vigorous and lovely DISTANT MESA. This will be well received by all lovers of the Mohr-family as well as those who like such bright, clean, pastel colors.

"No one had heard of" Vern Moulding until the Ogden show last spring when his FORMAL AFFAIR created such a stir at the show. Vern had quietly been hybridizing for several years and had visited Melba Hamblin's garden each season — obtaining some seedlings and named irises for breeding purposes. Vern hadn't joined the American Iris Society as his ideas of breeding were entirely his own and fortunately he was daring enough to make the wide cross that produced Formal Affair. Mrs. Moulding shares an interest in this hobby with Vern and they are now members of the A. I. S. We look for more exciting things from the hand of this fancier.

Mrs. H. C. Hansen (Cleeta) is garden editor for the Logan newspaper. It has been through her hard work and foresight that the Cache Valley Iris Society has grown and enlarged its A. I. S. membership while she has served as President, and in other positions in the organization. Cleeta is a dynamo of power, and talent, and gives freely of this to anything she undertakes and this includes the iris and its advancement. We are pleased to offer her first introduction, lovingly named for her husband, Hans C. This is such a smoothly finished flower and comes so early in the season it is a welcome sight. Hans C. has good carrying power in the garden, too, it will call you across the garden and you will have to walk over to see it close-up.

We who have followed C. G. White's efforts through the years know what a wonderful contribution he has made to the iris world. At last he was able to break the fertility barrier of the oncocyclis derivatives — this, perhaps, by combining bloodlines of the various Regelia irises and a touch of T. B. blood, as well. Marie and I shall never forget our first meeting of the Whites in 1946 while on our honeymoon with Uarda and Carl Larsen and the stories we heard of Mr. White's then famous copper-metallic caddillac — one of the very few of such color in Calif. at that time. They were most gracious. My regret is that I did not meet and get to know Fae Bethurum, Mr. White's private nurse and the one, perhaps, who knows more about Mr. White's work than any living person. Fae has saved many of these beautiful hybrids, and actually, in the last years, has been responsible for much of the hybridizing among these remarkable flowers. The surface has "just been scratched" and some really fabulous things are to come through their use. Leo T. Clark, of Corning, California, crossed Jalla Effendi to Susiana and has about as spectacular an onco-bred in tones of browns, hennas and coppers as one could imagine, with tremendous size. Writing of Leo Clark, we are glad he will carry on the work begun by another great Oncocyclis lover who passed away last year — Herbert E. Kerr, of Tehama. It is unfortunate that we have lost men of Mr. Kerr's and Mr. White's talent just as great things were unfolding for them. I am pleased to co-introduce, with Tom Craig, Mr. White's latest: KALIFA KASHAN.

Mary (Mrs. Donald E.) Peck of Sioux City, Iowa, is well known in median and dwarf bearded-circles. I have corresponded with Mary for several years, always finding her letters stimulating. Mary is using the dwarfs and species to quite an extent and we may look for unusual material from this hybridizer. I feel WEE REGIE holds unusual promise to the breeder and certainly is a welcome garden subject in a color that is almost non-existent. You were introduced to Eugene Sundt, from Albuquerque, New Mexico, last year. There are two new introductions for this year: ROJO GRANDE, which we feel will be a most useful mate with the C. G. White hybrids, and perhaps to get some new genes into our pinks and reds — (naturally Grandpa Tell is pleased with the pedigree of this one), and Rose Hermosa, which has been well received in the home area and friends are urging its introduction. This has won its several preliminary awards.

Melvina Suiter has been mentioned before and I have introduced, previously, Snow Bonnett and Salmon Sheen. One sees from the wide range of colors this breeder has introduced that Mel, too, plays the field. I think Tomeco will put her in the top ranks with those who are specializing in reds. Here again, I am proud of the Burmese Ruby blood in this iris, since I, too, have found this iris gives a smoothness to its descendants.

Selma (Mrs. Ray) Jensen, of Logan, is not unfamiliar to most of you. I introduced her first named iris, Master Neil, and now two more which you will like. Selma is a judge and member of the Cache Valley Iris Society and has been a constant winner at their iris shows. Ray has some of the world's greatest Herford cattle, and Selma often accompanies him to the shows. Ray also keeps the deep freeze full of choice beef and furnished the iris garden with that wonderful humus that makes things grow so beautifully.

We've corresponded with Mary Tharp since about 1944 and have grown and enjoyed many of her fine irises. Mary is a true devotee to this flower and is one of the pioneer iris growers and hybridizers of Idaho as well as the United States. I first met Mary, her son Jim, and daughter, Peggy ten years ago while my friends, the Salzers and I were on our way to Vancouver, B. C., Canada, to judge a bird show. I failed to mention that we called on Mary and Jim the morning we left Boise on our way to the Convention, this year. The early garden subjects were flaunting their colors. TOP HELEN was very fine as were many others: My Loveliness, some pink seedlings and a row of reds sporting "horns" on the ends of the beards that were out of Rose Glow x Joseph's Mantle or Rich Raiment. My notes from there were lost. A young hybridizer from whom we will hear quite a lot later, Neil Mogensen, of Fruitland, nearby, had several of his seedlings there. This young man, and many others, feel a debt of gratitude to gracious and generous Mary Tharp. We were pleasantly surprised to find that Mary is an artist of real talent and although Jim is handicapped, he too, had done some paintings which were most interesting showing the gifts of heredity, and perhaps a touch of environment. We know you will enjoy Top Helen, a real achievement. We look forward to continued good work from this 80 years "young" hybridizer and friend.

Blue Flight, Amelita, Gracelle and Venetian Pink, are Margaret Albright's earlier introductions and we now bring out TOP OF THE WORLD — her masterpiece. We think this holds great promise as a breeder in many directions and especially for things with blue standards and white falls or to obtain unusual beards. Thinking it over Exotic Blue crossed with Top of the World might throw some unusual beards.

Esther (Mrs. Merlin) Tams, of Wellsville, Utah, had been one of the loyal supporters of the Cache Valley Iris Society and has been engaged in hybridizing for several years. I think her first introduction a lovely creation for it has a charm and personality all its own. Llita will produce wonderful offspring, I have no doubt. Esther is one of the newest Judges appointed in Region 12, and will perform her duties in an honorable way.

Fanciers of dwarfs know the name of Edward Zickler, of Indianapolis, Ind. very well; Butter Ball having been awarded the D. I. S. Medal for 1958. Ed. is working primarily among the dwarfs and borders, while his son has done fine work among the tall bearded irises. Ed. crossed Tangarose with Happy Birthday and every seedling from this cross had a tangerine beard. There were pinks, orchids, salmons. Ed. feels this an outstanding breeder and that is the purpose of its introduction since Tangarose is not a finished garden flower. I am anxious to try this with some of Helen Fitzgerald's Baria x Pink Formal seedlings, also to Lillipinkput, Brassie and some of Walter Welch's lilliputs (Medians) containing some pink bloodlines.

Because of the length of this "travelogue-diary" I shall not write a hybridizing section. For those who are interested, I still have available a few issues of the following old catalogs at 50 cents each: 1956, 1958 and 1959 each with hybridizing sections.

We appreciate your continued support and thank those who were patient with us last year when my Field-man became ill and we got behind with the rash of orders for the specials. These things happen and we cannot always be prepared for them.

Good wishes and happy gardening and hybridizing to those who enjoy this pastime.

Sincerely,

"Uncle Tell"
